

ACCREDITATION AND DESIGNATION

The University of Virginia School of Medicine is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine designates this educational activity for a maximum of 1 category 1 credits towards the American Medical Association's Physician's Recognition Award. Each physician should claim only those credits that he/she actually spent in the activity.

The University of Virginia School of Medicine awards 0.1 CEU (Continuing Education Unit) per contact hour to each non-physician participant who successfully completes this educational activity. The CEU is a nationally recognized unit of measure for continuing education and training activities that meet specific educational planning requirements. The University of Virginia School of Medicine maintains a permanent record of participants who have been awarded CEUs.

For credit, eligible attendees must sign the attendance sheets that are positioned on a table located inside the back entrance to the auditorium. (CME evaluation forms will be available at the same location. Completed evaluation forms should be mailed to: Ms. Judith Marymor, CME, UVa Health System, PO Box 800711, Charlottesville, VA 22908-0711.)

DISCLOSURE

The University of Virginia School of Medicine, as an ACCME sponsor, expects all faculty participating in a sponsored activity to disclose to the audience any significant financial interest or other relationship (1) with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in an educational presentation and (2) with any commercial supporters of the activity. Each speaker is also expected to identify and disclose any "off-label" uses for pharmaceutical products or medical devices to be discussed in the presentation.
