

Resident Name

University of Virginia Health System
Department of Psychiatric Medicine

ECT

Resident Competency Documentation Form

Attending physician to initial when completed.

- ___ Evaluation and preparation of patients for ECT
- ___ Basic understanding of theory and principles associated with ECT
- ___ Equipment and supplies in ECT
- ___ Anesthesia and Pharmacology in relation to ECT
- ___ Techniques and application of ECT under supervision (min 20 patients)
- ___ Potential complications of ECT
- ___ Social and legal aspects of ECT
- ___ Transitioning from ECT to alternative treatments and maintenance ECT

Year _____ Rotation # (circle one) 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

of Procedures performed _____

Comments:

The resident named above has completed a rotation on the ECT service, and has shown a basic knowledge and competence in the assessment of patients for ECT, the application of the procedure, and appropriate follow-up care.

Attending Psychiatrist	Date
Print Name	Signature