

ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO THE
CONGRESSIONAL INTERNET CAUCUS

Cordially invites you to attend the 10th Annual
Kickoff Reception & Technology Exhibition

Featuring:
Live Video Conference with U.S. Troops in Iraq

Wednesday, January 31, 2007
5:00 – 7:00 pm
Hart Senate Office Building, Room 902

The Congressional Internet Caucus Advisory Committee cordially invites you to attend the 10th annual "Kickoff Reception & Technology Exhibition" in room 902 of the Hart Senate Office Building. This event will feature a demonstration entitled, Freedom Calls, utilized by the University of Virginia's Telemedicine Center. Freedom Calls will allow participants an opportunity to interact in real time, both audio and video and one on one with soldiers stationed in Al Asad and/or Camp Cooke, in Taji Iraq.

What: Kickoff Reception & Technology Exhibition: featuring Freedom Calls

When: Wednesday, January 31, 2007
5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Where: Hart Senate Office Building,
Room 902

Freedom Calls mission is to build a communications network independent of military networks employing state of the art Wi-Fi, VOIP telephony, Video Conferencing and Satcom technology to enable our troops to communicate free of charge from their base camps (Al Asad and/or Camp Cooke) with their families at home by internet telephone, instant messaging and video conference. Freedom Calls will be given an ideal location within Hart 902 to allow for a more personal experience. If you have a family member serving in Iraq, you could have the opportunity to set up a live videoconference with your loved one.

RSVPs are appreciated, please send name and organization to rsvp@netcaucus.org or call 202.638.4370

The honorary hosts for this event are Senator Leahy and Congressmen Rick Boucher and Bob Goodlatte

This is a widely attended event hosted by the Congressional Internet Caucus Advisory Committee, part of a 501(c) (3) charitable organization.