

Florence Nightingale: Vision, Achievements, and Relevance Today

Florence Nightingale, c. 1858.

The Center for Nursing Historical Inquiry presents the 18th Annual Agnes Dillon Randolph Lecture

Lynn McDonald, PhD

Director, Collected Works of Florence Nightingale
University Professor Emerita,
University of Guelph
Member of Parliament, 1982-88

March 13th, 2012

4:30-6:00 p.m.

Claude Moore Nursing Education Building
#G010

Reception, sponsored by Sigma Theta Tau,
Beta Kappa Chapter, to follow.